

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

February 20, 1984
Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Record Series

File

Date

SPRING QUARTER REGISTRATION

Registration for Spring quarter at the Junior College has begun and will continue through March 7. The first day of classes will be March 8, 1984.

SHELTON SINGERS IN CONCERT

Under the direction of Mrs. Joy Dendy, the Shelton Singers will present their Winter quarter concert on Thursday, February 23, at 11 a.m. in the auditorium. The concert will last approximately 30 minutes and the faculty and students are urged to attend.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP

A full tuition scholarship to Shelton State Community College for the 1984-85 school year is currently being offered by the Shelton State Alumni Association. Applications will be judged on grades and need. All applications must be submitted by March 7. For more information or to obtain an application, contact Lucy Kubiszyn.

BSU MEETING

The Baptist Student Union will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday, February 21, at 12:30 p.m. in room 87. New council members and officers for the Spring quarter will be elected. All students interested in joining the BSU are invited to attend.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP AUDITIONS

Auditions for the Performing Arts' Scholarships at Shelton State will be held April 7 and May 19 from 1-3 p.m. in the music room. Scholarships are available in piano, voice, choir, and jazz band. Applications must be filled out and returned two weeks prior to audition date. For more information or to obtain an application, contact Syble Coats, chairman of the department of music.

LIBRARY SPONSORS PROGRAM

Perry Ketchum, executive director of The Transnational Group of Washington, D.C., will be the guest speaker on Wednesday, February 22, at 11 a.m. at the Junior College. The program, presented in conjunction with the art exhibit "The Heritage of Saudi Arabia," will include a brief description, with slides, of Saudi Arabia and comments on Saudi Arabian heritage and culture as they relate to the exhibit.

The exhibit features prints from the book, TRADITIONAL ARCHITECTURE OF SAUDI ARABIA by Wabbi Al-Hariri-Rafai as well as silver jewelry, carpets, and tent decorations from the collection of John M. Topham. The exhibit is being circulated under the auspices of the Southern Arts Federation of Atlanta, Georgia.

Ketchum is a partner in The Transnational Group, the Washington, D.C.-based firm which designs and manages communications programs for international and domestic clients. The firm's wide experience with Saudi Arabia includes the design and management of the Saudi Arabia pavilion at the 1982 Knoxville World's Fair, as well as the preparation of information materials and exhibits on Saudi Arabia.

Ketchum's work has frequently taken him to the Middle East, as a Peace Corps volunteer in Iran and as a Middle East journalist. He has also served as an information specialist for the Chase Manhattan Bank and the FINANCIAL TIMES OF LONDON and a project director for the Agency for International Development.

The program is part of the exhibit scheduled for the month of February. The exhibit is open to the public on Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m. - 9 p.m. and on Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL TEAM BEGINS PRACTICE

The women's softball team, the Shelton State Buccaneers, has begun practice for the 1984 season. Members of the team include: Mitzi Boykin, Tuscaloosa High School; Mary Green, Brookwood; Margie Holt, Central; Ozella Leatherwood, Holt; Judith Lee, West End Christian; Pat Lunceford, Northside; Sharman Martin, West Blocton; Phyllis Maynor, Tuscaloosa County High; Lisa Parker, Tuscaloosa County High; Diana Parten, Marengo Academy; Lisa Scott, Hillcrest; Melanie Smith, West End Christian; Janey Taylor, Stanhope Elmore, Dana Tidmore, West End Christian; Lynne Vining, West End Christian; Lori Westbrook, Marengo Academy. Charlotte Sumner is the trainer/statistician and Patrick Simpson is the student assistant. Steve King is the head coach and is assisted by Susan Graves. The Buccaneers were 33-10 during the 1983 season and were the Alabama Junior College Conference champions.

PEARSON COMES TO SHELTON

Mrs. Carolyn Pearson recently joined Shelton State as a library clerk in the library of the Junior College. She will work with other staff members in acquisitions and audiovisuals as well as microcomputer projects. Some of these projects will include putting the periodicals list on a disk and developing a union list of serials of local health science libraries which will be made available to Shelton library users.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The eighth annual fire department officers' conference will be held at the Alabama State Fire College on February 20-23. This conference is designed to deal with problems generally encountered by fire officers. However, it will be of interest and benefit to others having fire incident responsibilities. A registration fee of $25 is required.

Over 150 people attended the fire chiefs' appreciation luncheon held in Tuscaloosa last week. Tom Umphrey, dean of special programs and acting president of Bessemer State Technical College, was master of ceremonies.

LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSING GRADUATION

Twenty-four students from Shelton State's practical nursing program will receive their diplomas on Wednesday, February 29, at 7 p.m. at the Junior College auditorium. Mrs. Betty Bibby is the instructor for the class. Ms. Crickett Hendrix, nurse practitioner will be the keynote speaker for the graduation.

Graduates of the program include: Sherrie Anders; Bettie (Sue) Bennett; Sarah (Mandy) Browning; Cynthia (Cyndy) Buford; Sue Harris; Vivian Horn; Janice Kilgore; Georgia Le'Anne King; Naomi Long; Cynthia Osborn; Barbara Patterson; Dorothy Price; Lutricia Rice; Robbie Sanders; Ethel Irene Simon Golson; Alice Tucker; Wareen Washington; Cara Wilson; Lisa Young; Sandra Conner; Twilla Cummings; Jeannine Donahue; Ceola Evans; and Sarah Field.

THE LAST DAY OF CLASSES FOR THE WINTER QUARTER IS MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27. Exams begin on Tuesday, February 28 and continue through Thursday, March 1, 1984.

CLOWNS, JUGGLERS, MUSICIANS NEEDED

Clowns, jugglers, musicians are needed by the college. If you possess one of these talents and are interested in helping at special events, such as the Folk Festival and Lunch at Capitol Park, contact Dr. Humphrey Lee, dean of students, or Lucy Kubiszyn.
